:-: SOCIETY:-: Do You Want

parties in Northern Yirginia and the beautiful estates in and about Warrenton, was a dance given last Tuenday evening in the town hall at The Plains. The walls were curtained in trailing vines and the windows were draped with flowers, and an orchestration Washington furnished the music for the occasion. The german was opened by James Skinner, of Middleburg, dancing with Miss Mary Welby Carter, of "Moadow Grove," Miss Carter were an exquisite gown of pale green satin, draped in chiffon and embroidered in pearls. The chaperons included Mr. and Mrs. Wellford, Mr., and Mrs. L Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Brad Beverley, Mrs., James Foster, Mrs. Stewart, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. William Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wellford, Mr., Stewart, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. William Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wolford Crawley, Wilson Cox., Gordon Paulett, Joe Garnett, Major Blanton and Mrs. William Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Venable.

Decorations were in goldenrod and lighted lanterns were used on the lighted lanterns were used on the and Mrs. Richard Mason, trimmed in panels of satin embroidery, and Miss Camilla Wellford, in pink crepe, embroidered in an Eastern design with insets of lace; Messrs, Morson Keith, Taylor Scott and others.

Both Miss Scott and Miss Wellford will attend the three brilliant germans and several handsome luncheons that will be given in Warrenton this week, and society is more than interested in their social life just at present, as they are prominent among the long list of charming young girls who will be introduced at the "first Monday" here this winter. Monday" here this winter,

Emma Sutton, Emelie Howerton, Louise Gathright, Maude Seay, Maxie Acree and Louise Burke, Miss Fleet entertained most charmingly last Fri-day in honor of her guests, the house being arranged with potted plants and vases of pink reses

Richardson, entertained the Trenton Mill camping party, of which she was a member. The party has but recently returned from a two weeks' trip at Trenton Pond, Cumberland county, Va., and the thirty boys and girls who have

MONG the numerous festivities and round of entertainment inand round of entertainment ining and informal dances at the old mill have been most charmingly entercardboard and marked with the nick-names of the guests made attractive governirs of the occasion. Miss Vir-ginia Faulette made the highest score.

riactive costumes with the red or blue ribbons of the two sides, and quite a large number of society folk will be present for the occasion, which is always one of the most pleasing features of the Boat Club's entertainments.

E. M. Roscher, of this city, annual control of the sugargement and approaching marriage of his daughter. Edna May, to Herbert Newsom. The wedding will be celebrated some time in the month of October.

Refurned From Abroad

Attractive House Party.

W. S. Hill and his sister, Miss Lizzie Hill, have been entertaining a number of guests at their home, "Springhill," near Walkerton, Va., in honor of their niece, Miss Christine Fleet, of Richmond. Some of those attending the house party were Misses Emma Sutton, Emelie Howerton.

Louise Gathright, Mande Sacres and S and Louise Burke. Miss Fleet ained most charmingly last Friance in honor of her guests, the house arranged with potted plants and of pink roses.

Ilmg in the North.

L. R. Cullen, of 209 East Grace; Mrs. Nora A. Perkins and Miss ta Stallings, of Littleton, N. C., firs. Ella Hinton, of Petersburg, thursday for a stay of several at Atlantic City. On their resouth they will spend a few days siladelphia and will also visit is in Washington, D. C.

Elizabeth Hunt accompanied by the control of the control of the control of the following:

"Miss Trula Hicks Moorman, who has been again visiting Lynchburg, her lid home town, this summer, has ac-ng to Richmond some time in Sepember.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton S. Perry and little son, Charlton, left town last Wednesday for Buffalo and Niagara and New York City before returning to their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eden Peyton, r., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peyton, at "Eden urne," in Fauquier county, for the ast week, expect to leave Monday attoon for Washington, D. C., where they ill be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peyton will occupy their new time on Park Ayenne.

Minn, where she expects to spend the coming winter.

Miss Moorman spent last winter in Richmond and has a great many friends here who are interested in her movements. She will probably return to the city next spring.

Among those who went down from Roanke to Blue Ridge Springs for the german Wednesday evening were: Misses Willie Penn, Emily Eggleston, of Germantown, Pa.; Kity Hogg, Isabel Cobb, of Alabama; Rose Heyward, of Hollins; Rosa Rogers, Mary Rogers, Janie Harrell, Shirley Hart, of New Orleans; Kimbrough Coleman, of Lynchburg; Honoria Moomaw, of Cloverdale; Anna Wilson, Rosa Rogers, Mary Butler Evans, Miss Vincent, and Mrs. Peyton will occupy their new Jennie Harrell, Shirley Hart, of New Orleans; Kimbrough Coleman, of Lynchburg; Honoria Moomaw, of Cloverdale; Anna Wilson, Rosa Rog-ers, Mary Butler Evans, Miss Vincent, of Athens Ga. Miss Charlotte Gale, rental is very complete, and consists of many of the best makes.

Every Piano rented is kept in perfect repair by our experienced

Let us explain our liberal propo

Walter D. Moses & Co.

103 E. Broad Street.

Oldest Music House in Virginia and North Carolina.

and and line party were Misses Hazel Faultore.
In the party were Misses Hazel Faultore.
Concr. of Richmond; Minnie Dunn, of Pittsburg; Anna and Mabel Holman, Miss lie Gale, Linwood Holman and F. C. Sharpe.

Appreaching Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Steinbrecher, of $10 West Grace Street, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Eleanora Terese, to John Herman Lyneman, also of this city. The ceremony will take place on the anniversary of the marriage of the bride's parents, on the morning of September 6, in St. Mary's Church, No cards have been issued.

Sharpe.

Vesper Services.

Mrs. J. Garland Pollard will have charge of the vesper service this aftendorm to the vesper service.

Mrs. J. Garland Pollard will have charge of the vesper service this aftendorm to the vesper service.

Mrs. J. Garland Pollard will have charge of the vesper service this aftendorm to the vesper service.

Mrs. J. Garland Pollard will have charge of the vesper service.

Wesper Services.

Mrs. J. Garland Pollard will have charge of the vesper service this aftendorm to the vesper service.

Mrs. J. Garland Pollard will have charge of the vesper service this aftendorm to the vesper service.

Mrs. J. Garland Pollard will have charge of the vesper service this aftendorm to the vesper service.

ally invited to be present.

All privated to met in the view in the later.

All invited to be present.

All privated to Miss Sallie Deane and party have returned to Richmond after a stay of several months in Europe.

Mrs. Dudley Hill, of this city, and Miss Van Pelt are registered at the Hotel Rennert, Baltimore.

Mrs. Ernest Bolling left last week for Waynesbero, where she will be the guest of Mrs. J. L. Barksdale.

Mrs. Ben Hilliard, Ben Hilliard, Jr. Miss Eulalia Hilliard and Mrs. Homer Wilson are spending some time at Ocean View, Va.

Louis S Arnall has recently returned to the city after a visit to friends in Cincinnati and Hinton, W. Va.

Miss Bessie Arnall, who has been the guest of relatives in Louisa, Gor-donsville and West Virginia, has re-turned to Richmond.

Miss Caroline Gordon Rennolds is spending the month of August at her grandfather's summer home in Ashland.

Mrs. J. C. Williams and daughter, Miss Addle Williams have returned to the city after a visit to friends at "Edgewood," in Louisa county, Va.

Miss Nellie Price Morton and D'Aro; P. Morton are guests at "Dundee," the home of George P. Haw.

Mrs. Ellen S. Morton will return to her home, 507 West Grace Street, about September 1, Harold Hayes has returned to Richmond after being the guest of Miss Margaret Wight at "Wildwood." her country place in the Green Spring Valley, Md.

Mrs. V. H. Wyatt, who has been spending July and August in Louisa county, and her daughters, who summered in Staunton and Waynesboro, returned to town Thursday.

Buena Vista Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Buena Vista, Va., August 27.—With every room in the house filled to overflowing and guests being turned away every day, the season at the Heights has reached the top notch, and from now until the 15th of September it will be a hard matter to secure a room.
The past week has been a very gay one, and there has been a very gay one, and there has been something goling on all the time. Several small card parties have been given, and each evening the ballroom comes in for its share of attention. During the day the swimming-pcol, the tennis and croquet grounds, and the boating on the river are popular. A large dance was given on Saturday night in honor of several visitors who came to spend the weekend, and on Tuesday svening another large one was given. On Friday evening the largest german of the season was given. Last Sunday Templeton Norris, of Salem, came over in his machine with the following party from Fairfield: Miss Templeton, Roy Taylor and Miss Jennie Wheat.

Alfonse Campbell, who was called here by the illness and death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Campbell, returned to his home in Richmond Tuesday morphing.

Mrs. A. M. Patterson, of Lynchburg, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. W.
Harshall, Gatewood, of Pedlar Mills, is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. T. E.
Thornton.

Dr. H. S. Myers and L. P. Morris, of Thornton. Dr. H. S. Myers and L. P. Morris, of Forks of Buffalo, Amherst county, spent several days in the city this week. Dr. Myers will move his family here tae 15th of September. Mr. and Mrs. C. Moncure Campbell, of Amherst Counthouse, are the guests of Mr. B. W. L. Williams nherst Courthouse, are the guests rs. H. R. Mills. and Mrs. Carey Nicholas and Miss Rucker, of Ronnoke, were the s of Miss Bessie Burks several te.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Williams spent veral days at Luray this week.
Roy Terrell, cf Brownburg, and Carl aylor, of Decatur, were the guest of H. Burks several days this week. Miss Allee Titus, of Sarasota, Fla., is the guest of Miss Margaret Umholtz. Lewis Dickinson has returned from a ten days' trip to New York and Atlantic City.

B. S. Randolph is spending several days in Staunton lays in Staunton.

Mr and Mrs. D. H. Rucker, who have seen the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Rucker, have returned to their home, in lampton. Rucker, have returned to their home, in Hampton.

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Engle and Miss Ruth Engle, who have been spending a month at Alderson, W. Va., have returned to their home at the seminary.

Miss Lella Richerson, who has been spending a month in Lynchburg, returned home Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Georgie Boone spent several days in Roanoke this week.

Miss Annie Nolley returned or Tuesday evening from Roanoke, where she has been spending several days.

Mrs. Nathan Maynard, who has been spending several weeks at her former home in Salem, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Emma H. Gold, who has been spending a month in Staunton, returned home this week.

spending a month in Staunton, returned home this week.

Miss Templeton, Miss Jennie Wheat, Templeton Norris and Roy Taylor made up an automobile party who came in from Fairfield and spent the day last Saturday.

Crawford Dreaver, of Richmond, who has been the guest of V. E. Hodges, returned to his home this week,
Dr. and Mrs. James Meriweather, of Missouri, are the guests of Dr. G. D.
Meriweather.

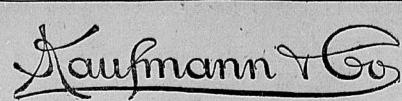

Washington Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispate'1.] Vashington, N. C., August 27.—A de atful "at home" was given by Mis

Wadesboro Social News.

latives.
Walter Wall and Miss Virginia Wall, Lilesville, left this week for Carson ty, Tex. to visit relatives. Later ey will go to points in Arkansas and end a few months.
Miss Balls Balls and

Last Cut and Final Clearance of Summer Apparel

IT'S THE END OF OPPORTUNITIES

Your expectations will be more than realized MONDAY to see what a miracle a bit of money will work in the purchase of Suits, Dresses and Coats. Buy now while you can at such prices as these:

Linen and Lawn Dresses that sold $3.98 at $5.98, $6.75 and $10.00 now.... Linen Dresses that sold at $15.00, $7.50 $20.00 and $25.00 now...........

Pongee and Rajah Suits, plain and fancy trimmed, all colors, sold at $15,00, $8.95 White Serge Suits that sold at $10.00

Silk and Net Waists

Prettily made, sold up to $5.00, $2.98

New Fall Suits We are now showing New Fall Apparel

At $12.50 we are offering some practical and serviceable Suits for early wear, which should merit your attention.

Final Reductions in Millinery

Prices have been cut to the last notch now, so why wear that old Hat when we are closing out ours at practically give-away prices? Be here Monday to share in these values.

::SUMMER RESORTS::

Springs Social Entertainments,

al. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Key dileton and Master George Pendle, who arrived from Newport over veek ago and have taken a hotel tage for the fall season, will be led by friends to-morrow.

'I Monday Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant h, who have taken a suite at the mestead, are expected to arrive my Newport and while bere direct.

Newport and while bere direct.

Southry his balley, Md.

Mrs. V. H. Wyatt. who has been spending July and August in Louisa and C. S. W. Packard, Miss Gladys Ingalls, W. Asheraft and Miss Ethel Asheraft left this week for New York and Baltimore.

Minetree Folkes has returned to the city, after spending his vacation on the Eastern Shore.

Mrs. R. I. Jones and her daughter. Mrs. R. L. Hardison has returned to the city, after vigiting in Cincinnatian and other Western points.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond. His morning to spend some time at Ocean View.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond this morning to spend some time at Ocean View.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond this morning to spend some time at Ocean View.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond this morning to spend some time at Ocean View.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Garnett Tabb. who are truned to Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Richmond.

Miss Raby Peay and Miss Alma Figgill leave

Byers.
Justice and Mrs. Horace Lurton gave a dinner at the Homestead on Saturday evening, and among the diners were Judge and Mrs. W. H. Jackson,
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neave, Mrs.
Charles Dickson and Miss Le Moine.
Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes Caperton, who had the tea pugoda in the Japanese room reserved for their party, entertained at a handsomely appointed dinner on Tuesday evening for a large company.
Several attractive motor parties have been features of the week's entertaining, which has also included moonlight supper parties at Fassifern Farm, the Daniel Boone Log Cabin, and the Oaks. Archibald M. McCreagave a luncheon at Fassifern on Tuesday for a motor party, complimentary to Mrs. David Dunlop, who has leased Barton Lodge and Fern Villa for the fall season, and will entertain several house parties.
Mr. and Mrs. William Allen entert

BEGIN TO ARRIVE Logan and her daughter, Mrs. M. L.
Tucker, Mrs. Audenreid, Mrs. Wesley
Merritt and Mrs. Norman Williams, all

Merritt and Mrs. Norman Williams, all of whom are here for the fall season. The villa colony has been very gay. Past Week Very Gay.

Special to The Times-Dispatch.1 rights Hot Springs, August 27.—fall season has come on here with ush, with the arrival during the week for many of the regular arm crowd, and the promise next ke of the advance guard, who are keys earlier than al. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Key dieton and Master George Pendlewho arrived from Newport over yeek ago and have taken a hotel tage for the fall season, will be led by friends to-morrow.

Merritt and Mrs. Norman Williams, all of whom are here for the fall season. The villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa, with Mr. and Mrs. and made the choes ring with Wednesday morning Mrs. P. M. Fry gave a very delightful bowling party. The rounds were made with great zeat. Scott. The lawn and plazzas were ling in several weeks earlier than al. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Key dieton and Master George Pendlewho arrived from Newport over yeek ago and have taken a hotel songs. A buffet supper was served.

Judge and Mrs. Williams, all of whom are here for the fall season. The villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa, with Mr. and Mrs. Week having been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony has been the moonlight lawn fets at Fern Villa colony. We densday evening. The volude and made the cchoes ride and made the vent gave a very delightful bowling party. The rounds were made with great zeal. We densday evening. The volude and made the c e during r." Othseconing

he Dowis J. Van and Mrs
George
S. Josiah
Watson
Cing, Mr.

Watson
Cing, Mr.

Brightview
Mrs

George
S. Josiah
Watson
Cing, Mr.

Watson
Cing, Mr.

S. George
S. Josiah
Watson
Cing, Mr.

S. Melville E. InSalis.

The Reverend and Mrs. Maitland Alexander, of Pittsburg, are installed at Upland House for the fall season.

Miss Alice Whiting, who left last Miss Alice Whiting, who left last week to visit Miss Margaret Draper at Manchester-by-the-Sea, is expected to return to Barton Lodge in the morn-

H. Erand Will remain through September.
Mr. and Mrs. db. F. Jones, Jr., and Miss Adelaide Jones and B. F. Jones, 2rd., have joined the Pittsburg colony at the springs.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Frederic Byers, of Pittsburg, are here, and will remain
through September and October. Mr.
through September and October. Mr.
the Pillars at a tea on Sunday aftermoon by Mrs. David Dunlop.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, of Pittsturg, who motored down to the Springs, will make the Homestead their headquarters while making short and Mrs. and Mrs. Harold miller, of Pittsturg, who motored down to the springs, will make the Homestead
their headquarters while making short
and Mrs. and Mrs. Harold miller, of Pittsturg, who motored down to the monday hael astied Jus-

CROWDS CONTINUE

Bridge Has the Best Season In

Its History—Many Forms of Pleasures.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Kiss Abbie Barnard, Miss Carbier, Miss Abbie Barnard, Miss Judith Colston, Mrs. Edgar Bright, Mrs. Charles Neave, Miss Le Moine, B. H. Wood William Rospers, William Hopkins and William Shepard Bryan, Jr. Mrs. F. H. Denny gave a bridge tea on the plazza of the Casino on Thursday afternon-for a company, which included Madames Robert Coleman Drayton, B. F. Jones, Jr., Fritz Bryts, M. E. Ingalls, B. C. Tighman, Edward Colston, John B. Morris, Law Colston, Hopkins and Ingersoll. Mrs. Tighman, Mrs. Ingalls and Miss Ingersoll were prize-winners.

Dr. and Mrs. Stricker Coles, who have given several dinner and functions during the week, entertained at tea on the same attronom that Mrs. Denny gave her bridge, and In addition to the sweat who can from the bridge party, were General and Mrs. William Roffs Deatur Axtell, Miss Edack Law, C. Black, Ruckman Lee, John Rutherfoord, Admiral W. G. chone, R. F. Jones, Jr., and Fritz Byers.

Justice and Mrs. Horace Lurton gave a dinner at the Homestead on Saturday evening, and among the diners were Judge and Mrs. W. H. Jacksen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noavo, Mrs. Charles Dickson and Miss Lee Admiral W. G. C. Soott, Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Miss Edack Rave, Mrs. Charles Dickson and Miss Lee Admiral W. G. C. Soott, Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Noavo, Mrs. Charles Dickson and Miss Lee Admiral W. G. C. Soott, Mrs. Decatur Axtell, Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Noavo, Mrs. Charle

MERRY SEASON WILL LAST FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

Many Parties Have Been Planned by Guesta at Brunswick Inn-Season at High Tide.

Every country was represented by the costume of the girls. A cotillion was danced the first hour, the masks being removed after the first figure. The figure was a very pretty one, spelling Brunswick Inn, and was led by Miss Geline McDonald and Loyad Taylor, of Richmond.

Each girl carried out the meaning of her costume by some little dance or song, and prizes were given the most attractive costume.

One of the most delightful five hundred parties given here this summer was on Monday night. Mrs. William Dabney, Jr.

ONTINUE

TO VISIT RESORT

Danney, Jr.

Miss Catherine Burke, of Norfolk, won the first prize, and Carrington Williams, the first gentleman's prize.

Williams, the first gentleman's prize, Great enjoyment has been given to the young people by driving and automobile parties to Staunton. On Tuesday a party of twelve spent the day there, and after returning to the inn were given a supper party, after which they all enjoyed an informal dance.

which they all enjoyed an informat dance.

Mrs. O. P. Redford, of Richmond, will make the Inn her home for the remainder of the season.

James W. Ambler and the Misses Ambler, of Baltimore, are among the latest arrivals. latest arrivals.

E. S. Blair, of Richmond, is spending several weeks here.

Mrs. B. P. Wilcox is visiting her daughter, Mrs. James Pollard,

J. E. Burke, of Norfolk, has joined his wife and family at the inn, and expects to spend several weeks with them.

them.

Among the week-end guests were
W. T. Lefew, James Pollard, Loyad
Taylor, William Dabnoy, Hanes Coleman, B. West Tabb, A. O. Swink, of Richmond; W. E. Poole, of Petersburg, and French X. Parker, of Portsmouth.

D. PERLIN, Ladies' Tailor

in general that he has returned from the North and is now ready to take orders for Fall and Winter Suits. He is giving special prices for orders placed early.

The best of leathers only are used in "Battle Axe"

Buy a Pair-Try a Pair.

The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.